TRINITY 'YAKERS ENJOY INAUGURAL VOYAGE

Trinity Altoona's newly-formed kayaking group, The Trinity 'Yakers, had a great turnout for their first monthly float in August.

Seventeen adults and children took kayaks and a canoe down the Raystown branch of the Juniata River from Corbin's Island to The Point.

According to spokesman Adam Counterman, the group hopes to make the floats a monthly fellowship event open to Trinity members, their families and friends.

Counterman says the floats are "such a nice way to relax and take in some of the beauty of God's creation."

The next float is planned for Saturday September 28 to explore the lake at Shawnee State Park in Schellsburg, west of Bedford. For more info, email Adam at doormanadam@yahoo.com.
