WORSHIP ATTENDANCE GROWS, SMALL GROUPS RELAUNCHING

Three weeks after reopening following the pandemic closure, combined attendance at last weekend's worship services at Trinity Altoona grew 8% over the previous weekend, welcome news as we enter the summer season. In case you were unable to attend, you can watch Pastor Eli's sermon on being welcoming by clicking the play button above.

As we continue moving back to normal, the church is being cleaned and prepared prior to each weekend and then refreshed after each of our 3 weekly services: 6:30PM Saturday, 8:15AM Sunday and 10:45AM Sunday.

We are, of course, taking a common sense approach and applying recommended social distancing measures during worship services. The 6th Street door is not currently being used so we can reduce the number of entry points to the church. There is also no singing or passing of the peace for the time being.

As announced last week, small groups are now able to resume their activities at the church, provided they follow proper protocol for social distancing and cleaning. The Sewing Group and Adult Bible Study will restart next Monday July 6 and Tuesday July 7, respectively.

Holy Communion returns this weekend July 4-5 at all three worship services. Both wafer and wine will be offered in a continuous format allowing for social distancing. Communion will then be held during the 8:15AM service only for the balance of the month.

We welcome you to worship with us this weekend. Peace be with you!

Our regular weekly activities (currently on hiatus) will soon again include the Sewing Group (Mondays 10AM-2PM), Adult Bible Study (Tuesdays 9-10AM, Wednesdays 7-8PM), the Healthy You Program (Tuesdays and Fridays 10AM), the Crochet Group (Tuesdays 6PM) and the Prayer Breakfast (Thursdays 9AM).

Summer, Fall, Winter and Spring. Faith, fun and fellowship are always in season at Trinity Altoona :)
